Redwood Community Action Agency Invites You to Apply to Join Its Board of Directors

As a Low-Income Representative

Redwood Community Action Agency is a private, non-profit community action agency serving Humboldt County since 1980. We provide a myriad of services including: affordable housing; help with energy bills or the purchase of heating fuel such as wood or propane; energy efficiency services, home repairs and the repair/replacement of heaters, water heaters or cook stoves as part of the weatherization services; natural resources enhancement and mitigation; services for the houseless members of our community including families and individuals; youth services through the Youth Services Bureau, designed to support youth with addressing the challenges in their lives including housing, counseling, and street outreach services through the RAVEN Project. Focusing on the issue of food insecurity, RCAA has taken the lead to create and support community gardens such as Abuelita's Garden and the North Coast Community Garden Collaborative.
